FARM LANDS for SALE .- The ILLINOIS

constant a state of the season of the season to Chicago, for the Eisstern, and to Cairo for the Southern market.

Bituminous Coal is extensively mined along the Road, and supplies a cheap and desirable fuel, being farmished at many points at $1.50 to $4 per tun. Wood can be had at the same rate per cord. Extensive quarries have been opened in the southern part of the State, near the line of this Road, of Building Stone of excellent quality—such as white and bits Limestone, and white and red Sandatone—which can be had for little more than the expense of transportation.

The Government lands, in the Land States, having generally been withdrawn from market, emigrants from the Eastern States and Europe can be accommodated by this Company with vanuable Farms, at the old prices and terms, which, in all probability, will deable in value within twelve months.

When those lands are restored to market, persons who think of settling on them, or in Minnesota, should bear in unind that the Lands of this Company, at the prices for which they are soid, are better investments show those in other States or Territories more temote from market, at Ouvernment places, so the reason that the expense of transporting the products of the latter to market will always be a heavy drawback on them, and after a few years' calitivation they require manuring, which is not the case with Illinois lands.

The same remarks hold good in relation to the lands in the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska; for although vacant lands latter to market will always be a heavy drawback on them, and after a few years' collivation they require a naturing, which is not the case with Illinois lands.

The same remarks hold good in relation to the lands in the Territories of Kansas and Nebrasks; for although wearnt lands may be found near the water-courses, the distance to marketis far greater, and every hundred miles the products of those lands are carried either in wagons or interrupted water communications increases the exponess of transportation, which must be borne by the settlers in the reduced price of their products, and to that extent precisely set the incomes from the farms, and of course on their investments, lannually and every year reduced. The great fertility of the lands now offered for site by this Company, and their consequent yield over those of the Eastern and Middle States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transportation, especially in view of the facilities farmished by this Road and others with which it connects, the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of Summer or the frosts of White.

The price will vary from $5 to $25, according to location, quality, etc. Contracts for deeds may be made until further notice, sipplishing the purchase money to be paid in five annual installments—the first to become due in two years from the date of contract, and the others annually theresher. The last payment will become due at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract, and the others annually theresher. The last payment will be a characted at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract, and the others annually theresher. The last payment will be the characted at the end of the sixth year from the date of the contract, and the characted of the sixth year from the date of the contract, and the characted of the sixth year from the date of the contract, and the characted of the sixth year from the date of the contage, and the state of the contract, the first two years' interest must be paid in alvance, and it must be understood that at least one tenth of the land purchased shall yearly be brought under califyration. Twenty per can from the credit price will be received as each.

Ready framed Farm Euildings, which can be set up in a few days, can be obtained from responsible persons.

They will be 12 feet by 20 feet, divided into one living and three bed rooms, and will cost complete, set up on ground chasses anywhere slong the road, $250 in cash, exclusive of transportation. Larger buildings may be contracted for air proportionate raise. The Company will foreward all the materials for such buildings over their road promptly.

It is believed that the price, being credit, and low rate of in it is believed that the price, being credit, and low rate of in the price of the contracted for the proposed of the proposed of the contract of the country will probably have increased their value four or five-fold. When required, an experienced person will accompany applicants, to give information and aid in selecting lands.

Circulars, containing numerous instances of successful farming, since they respectable and well known farmers living in the anishborhood of the railroad lands, throughout the State—sho the cost of teneing, price of cattle, expense of harvesting, thrashing, etc., by contract—or any other information—will be cherrfully given on application, either personally or by letter, in English Ersenh or German, addressed to JOHN WILSON, Land Commissioner of the Parcolary.

Office is fillingle Central Railroad Depot, Chicago, Ill.
